Funk with electronica, soul music's warm and purity melted with dirty, cold urban sounds: this is the Urban Soul's project, the Urban Soul's way. Urban Soul's 45 minutes live show thought for Biennale is composed by seven or eight songs, performed by the band. The whole show is based on original grooves, themes and songs, all composed by us.

Seven musicians are involved in the show. Two voices (male and female), guitar, bass, keyboards, drums and a saxophonist/percussionist.
